Just a short stroll from the heart of Teulada only 300 metres away this unique villa enjoys a rare position where rural calm meets the convenience of town living.

Surrounded by open countryside and mountain scenery, the home is designed to make the most of outdoor life. A shaded terrace invites long lunches and relaxed evenings, while the private swimming pool, built-in barbecue area, and enclosed garage add comfort and practicality. The property also includes two additional storage buildings and purpose-built installations for olive oil production and storage.
