Nature: Los Flamencos is located alongside the salt pans of Marchamalo, at the entrance of the Manga del Mar Menor, and very close to Calblanque Natural Park and the Cabo de Palos marine reserve.

Sports: You will be able to practise water sports (windsurf, kite, diving, etc.) as well as mountain sports and take part in popular activities as several events are held close to the development, for instance the "Paraíso Xtreme" race (athletics, swimming, beach volleyball, etc.) among others.

Leisure and free time: The cultural offering is extremely varied, including traditional festivities and activities (Carthaginians and Romans, Easter Week) as well as modern cultural options such as ("La Mar de Músicas" International Festival in Cartagena, the "Cante de las Minas" flamenco competition, theatre and the Roman forum).

Services and everything you need with the convenience of excellent road communications to other cities such as Cartagena, Murcia and Alicante, surrounded by day-to-day amenities such as supermarkets, health centres, veterinary clinics, post office, etc.
