Traditional Spanish semi-detached country house, listed under Dolores area but nestled nicely within easy walking distance of Daya Nueva. This lovely stone built property comprises the original house with 2 bedrooms, bathroom, independent kitchen, with lounge and large enclosed porch and dining area. There are a further two bedrooms and bathroom in the attached but separately accessed annex. To the front of the house there are delightfully laid out terraces with functioning fountain, plunge pool, parking and ample storage/utility areas. Perfectly situated for anyone looking to make the most of traditional Spanish country living, whilst not be...
