The Orihuela Costa with his beautiful beaches and his lively marinas, In fact ,the countryside is very attractive in San Miguel de Salinas.North of San Miguel de Salinas there are the Salt Lakes nature park of Torrevieja and La Mata. South of the town there are the many lemon and orange trees from Orihuela city. The lemon and orange groves release a sweet lovely fragrance. Especially when they are in blossom. still we adore it each time. It is the smell of Spain. At the west side the “La Pedrera waterreservoir”, with the blue clear water, and the mountains of the Sierra Escalona and La Pena. Near the” La Pedrera” lake there is a multi- adventure park: Lo Rufete . Read more about in the paragraph below.The town has many bars, restaurants and little supermarket. The other shops are really Spanish shops. If you want to shop till you drop than go surely to the nearby Habaneras Shopping center or the Zenia Boulevard. Both are a 15 minutes drive from San Miguel de Salinas.Every Wednesday morning from 8.00 to 13.00 in the streets of the town there is a local street market (is a very colorful event). The market is popular with locals and tourists from nearby Orihuela Costa. On the market there are selling food, vegetables, fruits, flowers, clothes, shoes...The San Miguel Church dates back to the early 18th century. In 1829 there was a heavy earthquake in the region of Torrevieja and San Miguel de Salinas, the church is the only building that survived. The inside has been restored, so it is possible to climb to the bell-tower and enjoy a fantastic view over the pink salt lakes, the countryside with the citrus trees and the mountains. Tip: do not forget to take your camera with you. The opening hours of the church of San Miguel is from 10.00 to 12.00. It is recommended to ask the permission to the priest to visit the bell tower. It happened that some tourist find the door locked when they came back from their climb.A nice thing to visit in Salinas are the cave houses or Las Cuevas, with even a restaurant in the cave.
